ta-tawâw STUDENT CENTRE

WELCOME. THERE IS ROOM. THERE IS SPACE.

Tansi! Anin! Taanishi! Hello! Find your home away from home at the ta-tawâw centre; a student space on campus that cultivates a respectful and welcoming atmosphere. The wâw centre is here to encourage student empowerment, identity, community connections, and Indigenous ways of knowing and learning. Our space acts as a central hub for all students on campus, faculty, staff, and community to gather and find a sense of belonging in the larger university environment. Welcoming all members of campus in the centre creates opportunities for intercultural and intergenerational exchange, which strengthens our entire community.

The wâw centre encourages:

- Successful transition of Indigenous students into university
- Student retention at the post-secondary level
- Participation at university events
- Successful completion of university education
- Transition into the workplace

OMÂ PROGRAM

nitôncipâmin omâ (WE ARE HERE)

The OMÂ Program is here to provide first-year Indigenous students with a supportive learning environment. Within this program, the wâw centre encourages you to become an academic leader by providing you with the tools you need to navigate your academic path successfully.

All first-year Indigenous students in the faculties of Arts, Business Administration, and Science can apply to participate. Part of one of our three federated colleges? Great! You can join the ÔMA Program too.

Seats are limited, so inquire and apply early!

WHY JOIN OMÂ?

- Connection with other first-year students
- Detailed class material review sessions
- Student success workshops
- Priority access to tutors
- Cultural and social programming
- Scholarship opportunities

THE 101 ORIENTATION

The wâw centre offers The 101— a free one day orientation for all new Indigenous students. By attending, you'll have the opportunity to connect with the Elders, find your way around campus prior to the first day of classes, and meet new and returning students before the school year starts. Participating in this program is a great way to begin your new adventure in post-secondary!

INDIGENOUS CAREER EDUCATION

Are you looking for career help, or even an internship or summer job? Indigenous Career Education provides programming that supports the academic and career-related success of Indigenous students. This includes:

- Co-operative Education Program (U of R and FNUUniv)
- Full Circle Summer Internship Program
- Job registry - All job postings and events are sent to your email
- Professional development workshops for both the co-op and summer internship programs
- Resume and cover letter preparation and critiquing
- Employer luncheon series
- Mock interview sessions

NEEKANEWAK LEADERSHIP INITIATIVE (NLI)

THEY ARE LEADING

NLI is an Elder-based leadership program where students are provided with opportunities to enhance and develop leadership skills through traditional and cultural ways of knowing, while participating in volunteer activities and events. Social gatherings are hosted throughout the academic year as a great way to network and connect with the campus and larger community. Each year, NLI hosts the Neekaneewak Leadership Awards, which celebrates Indigenous students who support the community through their involvement and engagement. NLI is led by a leadership team comprising Elders, student support partners, successful alumni, senior students, and community members who provide culturally-relevant programming, mentorship, and support to Indigenous students at the U of R.

ON-CAMPUS HOUSING OPTIONS

By choosing on-campus housing, you will belong to a supportive community and enjoy a variety of activities and cultural events. With five different buildings, and room configurations ranging from shared dorms up to 8-person apartments, you will find a number of options to meet your living preferences. Each building includes amenity spaces such as TV lounges, community kitchens, music rooms, study lounges, and smudging rooms — meaning life on campus offers you much more than just a place to live!

As a first-year student, you are our priority! Our ultimate first-year housing experience, UR Priority supports students in all areas of the transition to university life. UR Priority treats you like a VIP and provides direct access to services and resources to help you reach your academic and personal goals!

NEEKANEWAK LIVING LEARNING COMMUNITY

A Living-Learning Community (LLC) is a group of students placed together in student housing because they share similar interests and values. The Neekaneewak LLC is a partnership with the ta-tawâw Centre and might be a great choice for you! Some of the things that you will get to take advantage of include:

- Mentorship
- Cultural events
- Academic programming
- Leadership development opportunities to engage with community, both on and off campus

For more information, contact: Housing.Services@uregina.ca
To apply, visit www.uregina.ca/housing/index.html.

INDIGENOUS STUDENT HOUSING AWARDS

Living in on-campus housing is a great way to make friends, live in your own space, and enjoy easy access to your classrooms. Join us on campus and apply for one of our Indigenous Student Housing Awards.

To learn more, visit: www.uregina.ca/housing/housing_awards/index.html

ADDITIONAL HOUSING OPTIONS

While living on campus offers many benefits, if you feel it is not the right fit for you, there are several off-campus housing options available in Regina including:

FIRST NATIONS UNIVERSITY OF CANADA

First Nations University (FNU) is a great choice for new students. FNU has tailored its federated college experience to ensure student success and acculturation into Indigenous values, history, and lifestyle. All three of our campuses (Regina, Saskatoon, and Prince Albert) provide access to student services. The Regina campus is situated on the atim kâ-mihkosit (Red Dog) Urban Reserve, Star Blanket Cree Nation, and Treaty 4 Territory. Star Blanket is the first First Nation in Canada to create an urban reserve specifically dedicated to the advancement of education.

ON THE ACADEMIC SIDE: There is tutoring available in the fields of math, science, and Indigenous languages. Writing clinics are offered that can help with editing papers or offer tips to improve writing skills.

ON THE COMMUNITY SIDE: FNU hosts events yearly with the student association to ensure that you feel welcome and part of the larger FNU experience. These events include orientation, welcome week, celebrating holidays, and winter solstice activities.

ON THE PERSONAL SIDE: FNU students have access to Elder services and ceremonies so you can participate in building your mental and emotional well-being while strengthening your core values. Our students also have access to counselling services at the U of R.

CULTURAL CREATIVITY

Need a break from studies? Explore your creative side! The wâw centre offers regular art-making workshops that are open to students with all levels of experience. Workshop activities include creating and designing ribbon skirts and shirts, moccasin-making, and beadwork.

KNOWLEDGE KEEPERS

Sit with, learn from, and be guided by on-campus Elders. Students also have access to a cultural advisory room to smudge and seek one-on-one counsel.

GLEN ANAQUOD ANNUAL MEMORIAL TIPI RAISING COMPETITION

Each September, the wâw centre invites the university campus community and high school students to compete in the Glen Anaquod Annual Memorial Tipi Raising Competition. The event provides a fun, friendly, and engaging environment for hands on learning about Indigenous culture and values. Everyone is welcome to participate!

Please check the events calendar for upcoming sessions here: <https://www.uregina.ca/student/asc/events/index.html>

INTRODUCTION TO POWWOW

Want to learn more about powwow? Offered once a term, Intro to Powwow features live dance performances and showcases powwow's spiritual, physical, and cultural benefits. The presenter provides a contextual and historical framework for powwow, exploring its development and organization. The significance and meaning behind the dances, in addition to the different elements of the regalia, are also explored. Anyone interested in learning more about powwow is welcome to attend.

Additional Information for

INDIGENOUS STUDENTS

STEPS TO APPLY FOR ADMISSION:

1 SUBMIT APPLICATION FOR UNDERGRADUATE ADMISSION

CURRENT HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS:

You can apply for admission to an undergraduate-level program at the University of Regina during your grade 12 year. Your application will be assessed for Early Conditional Admission to your program of choice. This allows students who are still in grade 12 to be conditionally admitted using grade 11 and 12 courses they have completed. Students who are granted Early Conditional Admission are still required to meet the final admission requirements for their program/faculty at the time of graduation.

2 PAY THE APPLICATION FEE OF $100*

HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES:

If you have graduated high school, you are required to send in a final, official transcript. You will be assessed based on the final admission requirements set by each faculty.

3 SUBMIT THE REQUIRED DOCUMENTS

MATURE STUDENTS:

You may be considered a mature student if you meet the following conditions:

- Have completed fewer than 15-24 credit hours (dependent on faculty) of approved post-secondary courses
- Are a Canadian citizen or permanent resident
- Will be at least 21 years of age before the start of the semester
- Can demonstrate the ability to succeed at university through life or work-related experience

* If you plan to apply for band funding, please check with your post-secondary coordinator to find out if your application fee will also be covered. If so, you can request a deferral of the application fee by contacting Enrolment Services at enrolment.services@uregina.ca.

NOT SURE WHAT PROGRAM TO APPLY FOR?

Chat with one of our friendly enrolment counsellors! They can help you decide what program best fits your interests.

You can book an appointment online at urconnected.uregina.ca.

POST-SECONDARY TRANSFER STUDENTS:

If you have previously attended another college, university, or technical institute, you will apply as a College/University Student. Post-secondary transfer admission averages are calculated using the Admissions Grade Point Average (AGPA), which is calculated by combining recognized academic post-secondary courses and attempted U of R courses.
